NAME OF THE ACTIVITY	Say No Plastic
DATE	13.02.2025 THURSDAY
TIME	03:00 PM – 05:00 PM

A special awareness program titled “Say No to Plastic” was successfully organized on February 13, 2025, with the aim of educating the public about the harmful effects of plastic, particularly single-use plastic bags. This event marked a significant initiative towards promoting environmental responsibility and sustainable living within the community.

The event was held as per the directive of Honourable CI TRD Sinha, Officer Commanding, Tirunelveli 9 TN Sig Coy NCC Office. The program took place at Sankar Polytechnic College, Sankarnagar, under the guidance and leadership of Principal Dr.A. Sankara Subramanian. In his inaugural address, Dr. Subramanian emphasized the urgent need to protect nature and encouraged everyone to adopt eco-friendly practices. His inspiring speech motivated both students and staff to actively participate in the campaign.

The program was conducted by the National Cadet Corps (NCC), whose cadets played a pivotal role in spreading awareness about plastic pollution. The cadets of Sankar Polytechnic College NCC Unit participated in the event with great enthusiasm and commitment.

The event was further supported and guided by Army Personnel, including Junior Commissioned Officers (JCOs) Dhasarathan and JCO Soundara Pandian, and Non-Commissioned Officer (NCO) Amit Kumar Limbu. Their active involvement, leadership, and motivational guidance significantly boosted the morale of the cadets. They emphasized the need for each citizen to become a role model by adopting eco-conscious practices in everyday life.

Highlights of the Program:

- Awareness Rally:

The highlight of the event was a 2-kilometer awareness rally from Sankar Polytechnic College to the EB Office in Sankar Nagar.

- The rally was marked by energetic participation from NCC cadets.
- Banners and powerful slogans echoed through the streets, carrying the core message— “Say No to Plastic.”
- Cadets interacted with local residents, shopkeepers, and passers-by, educating them on the ill effects of plastic on health, animals, and the environment.
- Eco-friendly cloth bags were distributed as practical alternatives to single-use plastics.
- The concept and benefits of bioplastics were also introduced to the public.

- Pledge Ceremony:

The event concluded with a collective pledge by all participants to avoid plastics, promote sustainable alternatives, and spread awareness in their neighbourhoods.

Conclusion:

The “Say No to Plastic” awareness campaign was a resounding success, thanks to the collaborative efforts of Sankar Polytechnic College, the NCC cadets, and the Army personnel. The program not only educated the public but also instilled a strong sense of responsibility among the youth to act as environmental ambassadors in society.
